

SWAP-FREE ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

1. Scope and Effect

1.1. This Swap-Free Account Agreement (the "Addendum") forms part of the Client Agreement between Roco Broker Ltd. (the "Company") and the Client. It applies only to an Account expressly approved and activated by the Company as Swap-Free. A request alone does not activate Swap-Free status.

1.2. Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Client Agreement, Contract Specifications and other applicable Operative Agreements remain in full force. Capitalized terms not defined here have the meanings given in the Client Agreement.

2. Swap-Free Treatment

2.1. On an approved Swap-Free Account, overnight Swap is neither charged nor credited for Financial Instruments designated by the Company as eligible. All spreads, commissions, taxes, transaction charges and other disclosed fees remain payable.

2.2. Eligibility may vary by Financial Instrument, Account type, jurisdiction and trading condition. The Client must review the current Contract Specifications and information published on the Company Website before trading.

2.3. The term "Islamic" or "Swap-Free" describes only the contractual treatment of overnight financing. It is not religious certification or legal, tax, investment or religious advice.

3. Eligibility and Activation

3.1. Swap-Free activation is currently available only for Standard Lion and Standard Cheetah Accounts. Nano, Promotion and Bonus Accounts, and any Account holding credit, are not eligible. A Client may hold no more than one active Swap-Free Account across all Accounts linked to the same verified identity.

3.2. Applications must be submitted through the client dashboard and are subject to the Company's approval, AML/KYC checks and any supporting information reasonably requested. The Client confirms that all information supplied is accurate and that the Account will be used for legitimate trading purposes.

3.3. Swap-Free status takes effect only when confirmed and activated by the Company. The Company may approve or reject an application and may change the eligible Accounts, Financial Instruments or jurisdictions, subject to applicable law.

4. Seven Day Holding Period

4.1. Swap-Free treatment applies for a maximum of seven consecutive calendar days for each eligible position.

4.2. If a position remains open for more than seven calendar days, the Company may calculate and charge Swap for the entire holding period from the position's opening date, including the first seven days. Standard Swap will then continue to accrue until the position is closed. The Company may deduct such amount from the Account as a balance transaction and may also review or revoke Swap-Free status.

4.3. The Client is responsible for monitoring holding periods, margin and Account equity. Any warning issued by the Company is informational only, and failure to receive a warning does not prevent the calculation or deduction of Swap.

5. Prohibited Use

5.1. A Swap-Free Account must not be used primarily to exploit the absence of Swap or obtain an improper financing advantage. Prohibited conduct includes Swap or interest-rate arbitrage, carry trades structured around Swap-Free status, offsetting or coordinated transactions across related Accounts, repeated closing and reopening intended to reset the seven-day period, manipulation, fraud, or false or misleading eligibility information.

5.2. Legitimate activity is not prohibited merely because a position remains open overnight. The Company may review trading activity and request information reasonably required to determine compliance.

6. Review and Removal

6.1. The Company may reject, restrict, suspend or remove Swap-Free status if the Client is no longer eligible, provides inaccurate or incomplete information, fails to provide requested information, exceeds the permitted holding period, engages in or is reasonably suspected of prohibited conduct, or if the program is amended, suspended or withdrawn.

6.2. Upon removal, the Account may be transferred to the applicable standard conditions. Open positions will be treated in accordance with the applicable Contract Specifications or the Company's notice. The Company may recalculate and deduct Swap and related charges for transactions that improperly benefited from Swap-Free treatment. No other undisclosed charge will be applied retroactively.

6.3. Immediate action may be taken where permitted under the Client Agreement for risk, fraud, compliance or an Event of Default. Removal of Swap-Free status does not terminate the Client Agreement, and all rights and remedies under it remain available.

7. Changes and Communications

7.1. The Company may amend, suspend or withdraw the Swap-Free program, including its eligible Accounts, instruments, fees and conditions, subject to applicable law and the Operative Agreements. Any new fee or alternative pricing condition will be disclosed under the applicable amendment provisions. Changes may be communicated through the Trading Platform, email, post or the Company Website and will take effect on the stated date.

7.2. The Client must maintain accurate contact details and review communications through the Company's designated channels. Notices are deemed served under the Client Agreement. Continued use after the effective date constitutes acceptance of the revised terms.

8. Governing Law and Acceptance

8.1. This Addendum is governed by the laws of the Comoros Union. The dispute-resolution, jurisdiction, arbitration and enforcement provisions in Clause 21 of the Client Agreement apply.

8.2. By requesting, accepting or continuing to use a Swap-Free Account after receiving this Addendum, the Client confirms that the Client has read and accepted it, that eligibility information is accurate, and that trading remains subject to the risks and disclosures in the Client Agreement and Risk Disclosure Statement. Eligibility information and supporting documents may be processed under the Privacy Policy, AML requirements and applicable law.
